Civil Rights Hijacked By Race Hustlers – 3

“Murder rates among black males were going down – repeat, DOWN – during the much lamented 1950s, while it went up after the much celebrated 1960s, reaching levels more than double what they had been before. Most black children were raised in two-parent families prior to the 1960s. But today the great majority of black children are raised in one parent families.” - Dr. Thomas Sowell used by permission.

LeBron James & Grave Contradictions:

James' father, Anthony McClelland, had a long criminal record and wasn't really present in LeBron's life. As a result, his mother, Gloria, had to look after James' and two other kids in difficult conditions. His mother said; "I wouldn't wish some of the stuff we went through on anyone, not on my worst enemy." LeBron said that while growing up, he witnessed killings, and that his family once had to move no less than six times in just one year.

Contradiction 1: (A turbulent child-hood life)

LeBron's mother, Gloria James, has been known to mix it up with law enforcement regarding her erratic behavior. According to the Miami Herald, she's been arrested on two occasions. In 2006, she was picked up in Ohio and had to face charges for driving while intoxicated. According to reports, she kicked out the window of a police scout car and was charged with reckless operation, disorderly conduct and damaging police equipment. In 2011, she had another alcohol related run in with the law when she allegedly assaulted a Foutainbleau Miami Beach Hotel parking lot attendant for "taking too long" retrieving her car. She was promptly arrested, and several witnesses supported the parking attendant's account.

Contradiction 2: (The quiet confident faith of NBA superstar LeBron James)

On December 4, 2015, LeBron James stated: "There is only one guy ever in the world that everything will be all right when he comes back and that's Jesus Christ; other than that, you can't bank on nobody being ok." James not only invoke his confidence in the name of Jesus, he also announced "his certainty in the return of Jesus, which will bring everlasting justice and peace of earth." He also announced "His certainty in the return of Jesus." On December 4, 2012, LeBron said; he had reaffirm his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, and declared that "All Lives Matter." REALLY! KH

Contradiction 3: (Beware Of Those With Professions Without Possessions)

Only 5 years ago, LeBron James declared that “All Lives Matter.” Today, LeBron James is the leading voice of BLM, and in criticizing All Lives Matter, and police departments across the country, and claiming that “America is irredeemably racist and that the system is broken.” On April 21, 2021, Mr. James said; “I’m so damn tired of seeing black people killed by police. YOU’RE NEXT #ACCOUNTABILITY,” the NBA icon wrote with an hourglass emoji over an image of Police Officer Nicholas Reardon. After facing intense backlash from such notables as U.S. Senator Tom Cotton, R-Ark., “LeBron James is inciting violence against an Ohio police officer. This is disgraceful and dangerous. Is the NBA okay with this? Is Twitter?” Senator Cotton asked. (Yes, Senator Cotton they are okay with this, because LeBron James is their new image and money maker which always comes ahead of civility and decency.) KH

A Commendation Is In Order For Officer Nicholas Reardon:

The following is an excerpt of my letter sent to Mayor Andrew J. Ginther of Columbus, Ohio. The entire letter can be seen on our website: gracebiblechapel.com

“I had the privilege of serving on the security team of Billy Graham’s 1976 Greater Crusade. And I enjoyed an even greater privilege of meeting Dr. Graham and the team and being ask to speak in uniform on youth night. That 5 minute speech can be viewed on our church website: gracebiblechapel.com. As an Afro-American, I am fully aware of the unofficial “war on police.” And this new fad of “Blaming the police first,” regardless of the facts is in full P.C. mode, especially if the perpetrator is black and the officer is white. Officer Reardon was called into a hostile no-win 9-11 call, “Get here now!” a female says, telling the police dispatcher, “We got ... girls here trying to fight us, trying to stab us, trying to put her hands on our grandma. We need a police officer here now.” We can also hear on video Ma’khia Bryant screaming her last words as she was preparing to plunge a knife into her victim. “I’m gonna stab the _ uck out of you bitch.” What was Officer Reardon to do? Mr. Mayor, I was proud to serve my city for 22 years as a police officer and police chaplain, but I would not have made that decision today in this anti-police hostile environment. Nor would I advise any of my congregants to do so. God only knows the potentially, outstanding future officers that we are forfeiting because of the lack of support given our police officers.”

God’s speed for a safe city,

Next week: With 8-10 thousand blacks being murdered by blacks annually, and not a word from the leading civil rights organizations or leaders. Why? Police officers make nearly one million vehicle stops per year with 17 ending in controversial shootings. That’s a better average than the medical profession. Sure there are rogue cops, but there are rogues in every walk of life. Remember, police officers remain that thin blue line that separates us from total tyranny (Ro. 13:1-5).
